Index

aesthetic experiences in tourism 271 aesthetic labour 62
aesthetics of tourism 269 aesthetic tourists 267–277
alienation 91
amenity migrants 213
American and Chinese seniors 120–140 information technology usage 135 personality traits compared 130–131 travel-related characteristics compared 132 American seniors
travel motivations 126
Angkor, tourism destination 15
Angkor Kingdom 9
animal species, impact on 285 animation pilgrimage tourism 28
Annual Global Retirement Index 215
Asian economic growth 299
Asian financial crisis 299 astronomical tourism 101 astronomy tourism 99–119
definitions 101
geographic location 107 global market distribution 116 market segments 110–115 mobility 104
observatory and planetarium visitors 111 products, suppliers and tourists 108–110 rarity of phenomenon 106 viewing conditions 106
astrotourism 102
auroras 113
authenticity 90–92, 267–277 and aesthetic appraisal 269 and subjectivity 271 cultural villages in South Africa 90
definitions 270
lost 92
philosophers’ views 273 authenticity loss and popular culture 144 baby boomers 212
Bali and paranormal beliefs 166 barriers to relocating 218 behaviour management 289
behaviours
intentionality-impact mode 282–283 Bilibili 25
brand attributes, Egypt 253 brand equity 246
branding destinations 247
brand loyalty 179
brand management 248
brand personality, Egypt 253
brand positioning 249
brand theory 246–247
Brazil 231–243
Cambodia 7–20
casinos and resorts 16–17 development of destinations 14 ecotourism 16
orphange tourism 14
recent history 8–11
Tourism Development Strategic Plan 2012–2020 13 tourism governance 13–14 tourism growth since 1991 12
World Heritage properties 15
Cardamom Mountains 16
celestial ecotourism 101
Certified Retirement Community programs 213 children, influence on parents’ choices 177 children’s tourism market, importance of 177 China
growth as tourist market source 21 outgoing tourism market 84–85 Chinese and American senior tourists compared 120–140 Chinese millennials 22
and consumerism 32–33
Chinese tourism market 21–36, 85 new trends 28–33
Chinese tourists
behaviours 22–24
coffee tourism 57–78
and hybrid consumption 60
destinations 63
artisan-based 64, 71–72
education-based 63, 67–69 themes 59–60
merchandising 61
communism collapse in Eastern Europe 12 in Europe and Asia 8 communities
locals and tourists 279–281
cost of living 214
COVID-19 1, 297–317
and Chinese tourists 22 reaction of DMOs 306–308
cross-border destination marketing 83 cross-marketing tourism and TV/film 149 cultural boredom 143–156 cultural borrowing 145 cultural homogenization 91 culture shock 281
culture tourism 141–156
dark sky 102–104
dark tourism 160
data mining 233
decision-to-move factors 216
demographic trends 300 descending hierarchical analysis 236–238 destination branding 247 destination image 230–243, 303–304 destination marketing organisations COVID-19 response
Non-European countries 308–309
Northern Europe 309–310
Southern Europe 310–311 marketing policy 301–302
destinations
astronomy tourists 104
marketing to attract retirees 213 digital-free tourism 30
digital nomads 213
Disneyification 58
Disneyization 57–78
defined 58
of coffee tourism 67–71
DMOs. See destination marketing organisations
eclipse chasers 113
Egypt 244–266
brand attributes 253
brand personality 253
national strategic plan 258–261 national tourism brand 252 regional branding map 259 tourism growth 250–252 tourism regions 255–257 elderly population growth 123 electronic word-of-mouth 232 emerging tourism destinations 230–243 emotional labour 62
Expedia as research source 234 family re-unification 219 family tourism 176–190 dissatisfaction issues 183 child-focussed 185
studies from children’s angle 178 festivals 146
French Indochina 9
geek tourism 147
ghost tourism 160
globalization 267–268
global tourists 267–277
Gore, Al 300
graffiti 283
Grand Egyptian Museum 261
Grand Tour 191
Halal culinary tourism 81
Halal tourism 81
halo effect 221
hunting and fishing 284
hybrid consumption 58
and coffee tourism 60 income tax exemption 214
India, tourism brand image 86
Indonesia 57–78
and coffee agriculture 58 paranormal tourism case study 166 information search, online 41 interactive technology and popular culture tourism 149 intercultural contact, impact 280 International Living 215

Java coffee 58

Kazan Resolution, astronomy tourism 103 keyword inquiries, websites 25
Khmer Rouge 9

lifestyle tourism 30 light pollution 105
long-stay tourists 211–229 loyalty
  cognition, affect and behaviour 179 to destinations 179
lunar eclipses 113
Luwak coffee 61
luxury, democratization 192 luxury consumption 33
luxury meanings 204–205
luxury tourism 191–210
antecedents 194–195
solution for tourism post-COVID-19 192–193
consequents 195
luxury values
  factor analysis 199–200
global variations 202

Mainland Chinese seniors
  travel motivations 127
Malaysia, medical tourism 81
Malaysia My Second Home 214
Malta Retirement Plan 214 marketing approaches, successful 80–84 medical tourism 82
Mekong tourism 17
memory tourism 148
merchandising 61

meteor seekers 112
microblogs 24–25
millennials, Chinese 22–24
misbehaviours of tourists 278–296
motivations 216
mundane authenticity 30
mundane tourism 30 Muslim tourists 38–40
  favorite destinations 51–52 needs 40
  queries before travelling 37–56
  travel motivations 40
  types of information sought 44–47 Muslim women travellers 39

new and emerging markets
  definitions 281–282
new edges 24
niche tourism 157–175
nostalgia, as tourism motivator 148 nostalgia tourism 31

online tourism information search 41 orbital space tourism 102 Orchestra Model of on-site experience 164–165, 181–182
overtourism 87–89, 192
  Venice 88

paranormal tourism 30, 157–175
  defined 161
  emergence 158
  experiences and contexts 169 overlapping categories 162 parent-child relationships 178 party culture 287
PCT. See popular culture tourism performative labour 62
Phnom Penh 14
pilgrimage tourism 160
place branding, regional 257–258 place identity 80
place storytelling 80
Pol Pot regime, legacy 14
Pop Culture campaign, Thailand 148 pop culture tourism 28 popular culture tourism 141–156 artefacts as tourist attractions 146 globalisation 144
  loss of authenticity 144 popular culture based marketing campaigns 148 population changes, impact on tourism 2 post-communist tourism 7–20 push and pull forces 123 re-circulation 213
regional branding, 244–266 religions tourism 160
retiree destinations 213–216 best countries 215
Europe 214
retiree migration and COVID-19 226
retiree population, US 212 retiree transition stage 218 retirement migration, 219 and tourism 218–219
desirable demographic group 213 future trends 221–224
Japanese government policy 220
motivations 216–218
retirement transition 213 sacred tourism 161
screen-induced tourism 28 senior tourism market 120–140
motivations 125–128
trends 223
value of 122
sentiment analysis
process 233
tourists’ reviews 231
value to destination authorities 239–241 serious leisure 32
sex tourism 288
similarity analysis 236
Similarity tree 237
Sina Weibo 25
Singapore, tourism destination 179
skyglow 105
social media as data source 25 social rules, tourist-local conflicts 286 solar eclipses 113
space tourism 101
SpaceX Dragon 117
special interest tourism 99–119, 159–162 wider appeal 87
spiritual tourism 161
stargazers 110
starlight reduction 104 star party travellers 110 strangers, impact on communities 279–281 subjective age 223
tangible astronomical heritage 103 tax base 213
tech-tourism 149
terrestrial space tourism 101 terrorism 245
tourism destinations, artisan-based 71–73 tourism development 141–156 tourism markets emerging and developed 79–98 influence of children 176–190 tourist experiences 269–270 and Orchestra Model 164 cognitive and affective components 163 factors affecting 163
tavel vlogs 32
trendsetters 225
TripAdvisor 41
as research source 234
as research tool 180
key source of information 43 posts for research 43–46
UNESCO, Astronomy and World Heritage Thematic Initiative 103
vandalism 283
historic roots 89
Venice and overtourism 88
video blogs. See vlogs Virgin Galactic 117
vlogs 24–25
web scraping 234
website, keyword inquiries 25
weird tourism 30
Wellness programs 217
World Heritage List 15